PASTOR'S DESK

LABOR DAY

This Monday is LABOR DAY.

The Ordo (a book that contains the directives and suggestions for the order of prayer and liturgy) tells us:

Tomorrow, LABOR DAY, marks the end of summer vacation and the beginning of regular parish and school activities. All might be encouraged to participate in the spiritual and temporal works of the local faith community.

In light of the Parish Mission Statement published last week, and also in light of our baptismal calling, what spiritual and temporal works of the local faith community might be most deserving of the talents of each one of us? In other words, as a new year resolution, how can we best serve the people of God, the Church, in the days and weeks that lie ahead?

Father Mark

"We must sometimes take a step backward in order to better spring forward."

St. Francis de Sales

In your charity, please pray for all the deceased of St. Anthony's.

Music Ministry News

Did you know that Saint Anthony's can boast as having the best Roman Catholic Choir in the state of Delaware? It's true. Our choir is hands down, unparalleled. Sadly, our choir program is in jeopardy. Our choir exists mostly on the relationship Mr. Perazza has built with the vocal department of the University of Delaware. Our pool of volunteers from the parish is dwindling. All choirs need nurturing. They just don't exist without care and attention. We are asking that any parishioner, high school age and up, who enjoys singing to considering joining this very important ministry. Our future depends on YOU. Feel free to speak with Mr. Perazza, our organist after any mass or call the music office. Ask the parish secretary for extension 119. We need you.

You are invited to a graveside prayer service for the unborn.

Deacon Joe Cilia, from Church of the Holy Child in Wilmington, will conduct a prayer service at the graveside of 63 aborted children at Cathedral Cemetery, 2400 Lancaster Avenue in Wilmington, Delaware on Sat., Sept. 14th, at 9:45 AM. The half hour prayer service will begin with a short procession from the Queen of the Apostles Chapel to the grave. It is part of the annual National Day of Remembrance for Aborted Children co-sponsored by Citizens for a Pro-Life Society, Priests for Life & the Pro-Life Action League. Members of the Delaware Knights of Columbus & other representatives of the pro-life community will be in attendance. The public is invited and cemetery attendants will be on hand to direct visitors to the chapel. After the service, attendees are invited to go to Church of the Holy Child Social Hall, 2500 Naamans Road, Wilmington, for a free showing of the movie "Unplanned" and luncheon from 11:00 to 2:00. This event is sponsored by 40 Days for Life of Wilmington. Please RSVP for the luncheon before Sept. 10th to 302-723-9254.
